GRAMA Notice of Extraordinary Circumstances Form
used to notify a requester of extraordinary circumstances which will delay the response to a records request

Note: Utah Code § 39A-2-202(2) states that a governmental entity shall notify the requester within one business day if extraordinary circumstances arise which make it impossible to approve, deny, or process a request within specified time limits. The notification shall include:

- identification of the extraordinary circumstances
- the estimated date when the request will be processed or when records will be provided.

Requester information:

Request officer or representative name: _____ Date: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Utah _____ ZIP: _____

Telephone number: _____ Email address: _____

Requester information:

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ ZIP: _____

Domestic telephone number: _____ Email address: _____

Details about extraordinary circumstances:

Note: As provided in Utah Code § 39A-2-202(2), governmental entities are allowed to cite extraordinary circumstances in specific situations or methods and may adjust the time limits for requests according to defined allowances.

Statement of record officer's response:
A chain of extraordinary circumstances applies to the following record(s): _____

This chain is based on the following reason(s): _____

- Another governmental entity is using the requested record (indicate 1 additional business days unless notice would interfere with other entity's work)
- Another entity is using the requested record as part of an audit (must wait for audit completion)
- The requester is seeking a voluminous quantity of records or records from a record series containing a substantial number of records (indicate time required)
- The governmental entity is currently processing a large number of records requests (indicate time)

STATE of the Government Records Administration
Request for Records

<http://records.utah.gov/requestrecords/submitNewReq>

GRANTEE Notice of its Records to Provide

Use to notify a requester that records are publicly available. Do not check, or leave previously provided

Name Utah Code § 63A-2-203(2) states that after a governmental entity has received and answered records requests, it should advise the requester if it has not received the requested records, and if possible, provide a reason. Utah Code § 63A-2-203(2) states that a requester is a requester in a request, a governmental entity is not required to create a record, and is not required to provide a record that is publicly available. Providing requester notice is also not required.

Requester information:

Request officer or representative name Roger Blomdell Date 15 May 2022

Address 48 W Young St PO Box 1007

City Morgan State Utah ZIP code 84050

Telephone number (801) 467-4040 Email address rblomdell@morgansheriff.gov

Requester information:

Name Bradley Sherman MunkKirk News

Address 1001 N 1000 E (4000) 4000 N Highland Ave

City Sandy State Utah ZIP code 84044-2104

Telephone number Email address

Statement of records officer's response:

A state that the records are available applies to the following requested records:

Policy and procedures governing the County Sheriff's Office as set by the Morgan County Sheriff's Office

This state is based on the following reason:

- ☒ No records in answer to state. As provided in Utah Code § 63A-2-203(2)(b)(i)(ii) a governmental entity is not required to create or retain or to compile, maintain, retain, or reference information in response to a records request.
- ☐ This request unnecessarily duplicates a previous request and therefore the governmental entity is not required to fulfill it as provided in Utah Code § 63A-2-203(2)(b)(i)(ii).
- ☐ The requested records have been destroyed according to an approved retention schedule as required by Utah Code § 63A-2-203(2)(b)(i)(ii) and Utah Code § 63A-2-203(2)(b)(i)(ii). Records may be provided when:
- ☐ The requested records are available on line or in a publicly available publication. Therefore based on Utah Code § 63A-2-203(2)(b)(i)(ii) the governmental entity is not required to provide it. Records are provided below:
